

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF SOUTHWEST FLORIDA

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

Cursillo is open to all adult Episcopalians, who attend a church where a member of the clergy staff has gone to Cursillo. Clergy and laity who are seeking to deepen their faith or who wish to expand their knowledge of the Christian life are invited to attend. Husbands and wives may attend the same Cursillo weekend or may attend separate weekends.

Each participant (also called a pilgrim) has a sponsor, who has attended a Cursillo weekend. Your sponsor assists you in preparing for the weekend and will continue to support you after the completion of the weekend. If you know someone from your parish who has attended a Cursillo, you can ask them about it. They can answer your questions and help you determine if you would like to go. You may also ask your priest about Cursillo. If you don't know a person to sponsor you, your priest may have a suggestion. If you decide that you would like to attend a Cursillo, your sponsor can provide you with the application.

The purpose of Cursillo is to help develop Christian leaders. Everyone is welcome to apply for this weekend retreat, however, Cursillo can be spiritually, emotionally, and physically intense. Up to a mile a day is walked between facilities and sleeping accommodations are in dormitory bunk beds with shared bath facilities. If there are current physical or emotional situations/conditions that might deter your ability (or the ability of others) to experience the fullness of the weekend, perhaps a different time might work better. (English language weekends are held each February and October and a Spanish language weekend is held in May).

The current cost for a Cursillo weekend in the Diocese of Southwest Florida is $230.00 per person. This includes lodging and all meals at DaySpring for the three days (Thursday evening after dinner until Sunday evening prior to dinner). Please note that DaySpring does not offer a cancellation refund for weekend events. You will not receive a refund for no-show or early departure on/after Registration Day. Please contact your sponsor immediately if you will be unable to attend the accepted weekend.

Steps for applying to attend a Cursillo Weekend

1. Discuss Cursillo with your parish clergy.
2. Discuss Cursillo with your sponsor.
3. Complete a Cursillo Application and return the application to your sponsor.
4. Your sponsor and clergy will each complete a section of the Cursillo Application and then they will send the entire application to the Cursillo Registrar.
5. You will be invited to attend a Cursillo weekend as space is available. You must accept the invitation promptly to ensure space on the weekend. After receiving your invitation, the full fee of $230.00 is to be paid prior to the weekend. Do not send the fee with this application.

I attend Ultreya. Last one attended? _____ OTHER COMMENTS: _____

Name of Prospective Applicant: _____

Applicant's existing involvement with Cursillo (check all that apply – NOTE that previous involvement with Cursillo is NOT required for acceptance on a weekend. This information merely assists us in knowing the participant better):

Has been grouping Has attended an Ultreya Has spouse who is a Cursillista

What effect do you expect the Cursillo weekend to have on them? _____

What leadership potential do you see in your applicant? _____

The purpose of Cursillo is to help develop Christian leaders. Everyone is welcome to apply for this weekend retreat, however, Cursillo can be spiritually, emotionally and physically intense. Up to a mile a day will be walked between the facilities, dorm bunks are physically challenging and emotional situations/conditions may deter a Pilgrim's ability (or the ability of others) to experience the fullness of a weekend.

Does your candidate have any physical or emotional situations/conditions that may keep him/her from experiencing the fullness of this weekend or indicate that their Cursillo should be postponed: For example: recent divorce, loss of a loved one, open wounds that need frequent dressing, chronic pain, etc. _____

If during the course of the weekend a Pilgrim experiences difficulty walking, a golf cart may available to help transport. It should be noted, however, that Cursillo team workers are not licensed to give medical attention. If a Pilgrim has a particular condition, he/she must be able to provide self-care. Sponsorship is not a task to be taken lightly! It should be entered into as a long term commitment.

In agreeing to sponsor someone for a Cursillo weekend you are agreeing to the following responsibilities:

Pray daily for your applicant.

1. Assist in preparing him/her for the weekend (answering questions, finding child or pet sitters, etc.)
2. Arrange for his/her transportation to and from DaySpring.
3. Collect personal Palanca from family and friends of the participant and from your church.
4. Attend the Serenade and Clausura for his/her weekend.
5. Accompany him/her to the Fourth Day Gathering (scheduled approx. four weeks after the weekend)
6. Help him/her become established in a permanent Group Reunion and to attend Ultreya regularly.
7. Assure that adequate financial arrangements are made for your participant if necessary. The weekend fee of $230.00 is to be paid prior to the weekend.

I commit myself to completely fulfill these requirements.
